testify at trial pursuant to Rule 702, 703 or 705, Fed. Rules of Evidence, on any issue except in direct rebuttal to any opinions expressed in the statements previously served by a plaintiff or counter-claimant. On or before July 15, 2009, each party shall serve all opposing parties with the statement required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(2) of each expert witness it expects to call to testify at trial to refute or rebut the opinions of the expert witnesses disclosed either by the May 13, 2009 and/or the June 19, 2009 deadlines. Supplementation of any of these statements or disclosures shall be made by July 31, 2009, as to any information for which supplementation is addressed in Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(e). Failure to list objections (except those under Fed. R. Evid. 402 and 403) is a waiver of such objections, unless excused by the court for good cause shown.

5. Motions in Limine.

- a. Motions *in limine challenging the admissibility of expert testimony at trial under Federal R. Evid. 702, See, Kumho Tire Co., Ltd. v. Carmichael, 526 U.S.

<sup>1</sup> In accordance with the E-Government Act, counsel shall, on witness lists, exhibits, and other disclosures and/or documents filed with the court, redact social security numbers, home addresses, phone numbers, and other personally identifying information of witnesses, but shall serve an unredacted version on opposing parties.

137 (1999) and Daubert v. Merrell-Dow Pharmaceuticals., 509 U.S. 579 (1993), shall be filed by August 22, 2009 and accompanied by a request for a hearing if necessary. Failure to timely move for a hearing may constitute waiver of the request for a hearing.

b. Any other motions in limine shall be filed on or before October 29, 2009

6. The Final Pretrial Conference with the undersigned magistrate judge is set for October 29, 2009 at 10:00 a.m., Central Time in chambers, 566 Federal Building and United States Courthouse, Lincoln, Nebraska. The final pretrial conference shall be attended by lead counsel for represented parties. Counsel shall complete prior to the pretrial conference, all items as directed in NECivR 16.2.<sup>2</sup> By the time of the pretrial conference, full preparation for trial shall have been made so that trial may begin immediately thereafter. The pretrial conference will include a discussion of settlement, and counsel shall be prepared through investigation, discovery and communication with clients and insurers, if any, to discuss fully the subject of settlement, including realistic expectations about liability, obstacles to agreement, offers made, and offers which can be made at the conference. Counsel shall be prepared to make additional offers or proposals for settlement in behalf of their clients at the pretrial conference, and counsel shall be prepared to make or opine on recommendations for further negotiations and conferences.

7. Settlement:

a. Not later than two weeks prior to trial, plaintiff or plaintiff's counsel shall serve on defendant or defendant's counsel a written, updated settlement proposal. Defendant or defendant's counsel shall respond in writing to such proposal not later than one week before trial.

b. In the event the parties mediate their dispute, notice of the mediation shall be given to the staff of the magistrate judge's office. The filing of a mediation reference order will terminate pending motions, without prejudice to refiling. If the mediation is not successful, the moving party may reinstate such a motion by filing a written notice to that effect, and the other parties may respond in accordance with the local rules, regarding the date of the notice as reinstating the response/reply time that remained as of the date the mediation reference order was filed.

c. Notice of settlement shall be given to the trial judge's office as soon as practicable but in any event in time to avoid summoning a jury. If a case settles and notice of settlement is not given in sufficient time to avoid summoning a jury, assessment of jury costs may-- and normally will-- be made against a party and/or counsel for one or more of the parties. considered summoned for a trial at noon the business day prior to the designated date of trial

8. Jury trial is set to commence, at the court's call, during the week of November 16, 2009 for eight days, in Lincoln, Nebraska, before the Honorable Warren K. Urbom, United States District Judge. Unless otherwise ordered, jury selection shall be at the commencement of trial.

9. Motions to alter dates. All requests for changes of deadlines or settings established herein shall be directed to the magistrate judge by appropriate motion, including all requests for changes of trial dates. 10. Report on Mediation: Not later than June 30, 2009 counsel shall report by letter or telephone call to the office of the undersigned: (a) the name of the mediator or other neutral facilitator they have hired for their mediation in this case; (b) the date the mediation is scheduled; and (c) the parties' agreement on whether the progression of the case otherwise ordered herein should be stayed pending the outcome of the mediation. The court will then enter an appropriate mediation reference order. In the event any party objects to the entry of a mediation reference order, such party shall, also not later than June 30, 2009, notify the undersigned by letter of the objection and the grounds therefor. In the event a mediation reference order is entered notwithstanding the party's informal objection, a formal objection may be filed not later than seven days following the filing of the mediation reference order and shall comply with paragraph 3(f) of the court's Mediation Plan (as amended January 30, 2004).
